INFORMATION REGARDING YOUR RIGHT TO APPEAL

You are permitted by law to appeal this cancellation. An appeal must be filed no later than 20 days before the effective date of cancellation set forth in this notice. Forms for such appeal and the regulations pertaining thereto may be obtained from the offices of the Department of Financial Services. The Department of Financial Services does not have the authority to extend the effective date of cancellation; therefore you should obtain replacement coverage prior to the effective date of cancellation.

NOTICE REGARDING THE CONSEQUENCES OF FAILURE TO MAINTAIN AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE

This policy termination will be reported to the Florida Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles as required by law. Failure to maintain personal injury protection and property damage liability insurance on a motor vehicle when required by law may result in the loss of registration and driving privileges in this state. A suspended driver's license or a suspended registration may be reinstated upon payment to the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles of a nonrefundable reinstatement fee of $150 for the first reinstatement, $250 for the second reinstatement and $500 for each subsequent reinstatement during the 3 years following the first reinstatement. If a person does not have a second reinstatement within a 3-year period after the initial reinstatement, then the first reinstatement fee after this 3 year period will be $150. Other requirements may be imposed by statute in addition to the payment of reinstatement fees.
